

Kristina Nedeljkovic is a home visiting nurse and Head of the Home Visiting Nurse Service, Health Center of Novi Sad, Serbia. She is a specialist in public health, and she managed different projects promoting breastfeeding and vaccination. She is currently coordinating the national project “Strengthening the capacity of polyvalent community nurses for video counseling with families during the COVID 19 pandemic”. She is a member of the National Expert Commission for Breastfeeding Support, Family and Developmental Care of Newborns, and the Ministry of Health of the Republic of Serbia’s special working group on quality of the work of polyvalent patronage nurses. She is a Master Trainer for the Caring for the Caregivers programme.