

William Newton

Senior Researcher, International Development,
Arup

Will Newton is a Senior Researcher in Arup's International Development team, specialising in projects engaging with refugee and informal settlements. Prior to joining Arup, Will consulted on design research, brand narrative and content strategy for clients including National Geographic and the 2008 Obama for President Campaign. Will has worked and studied extensively in the middle east, conducting research into Palestinian refugee civil society development in the West Bank and Houthi governance structures in Yemen. He holds an MA in Middle Eastern Studies and an MFA in Design Research.